

Marathon Relay Rules

1. A team of 4 runners will cover the entire 26.2 mile distance.
2. Each runner will run 1 leg of each course ranging from 1 – 3.15 miles. Longest distance will be completed first, followed by the shorter distances.
3. Only 1 team member from each team can be on the course at any one time.
4. Teams must have 4 team members in order to compete and be eligible for awards.
5. There are several different entry categories for relay teams, which include:
 - Male (all male team members)
 - Female (all female team members)
 - Coed (equal ratio of male/female team members)
 - Male Masters (all male team members who are all 40 years or older)
 - Female Masters (all female team members who are all 40 years or older)
 - Coed Masters (equal ratio male/female team members who are all 40 years or older)
6. Each participant will be assigned a bib with a unique identifying number. Bibs must be prominently displayed while competing. Under no circumstance shall a registered participant allow another individual, registered or not, to participate using their assigned bib. Sharing a bib assigned to a registered participant will result in immediate disqualification of the team.
7. In the event of an injury, the team will still be allowed to finish the event but they will no longer be eligible for team awards.
8. The event will be run, rain or shine. The Race Organizers may delay the start, temporarily pause the event, or cancel the event completely due to severe weather.
9. Teams are responsible for setting up their own team station (tents, tables, chairs, etc.) before the start of the race and must remove any materials brought in by team members.
10. Rules are established by the Race Organizers. Any question about the rules can be sent to info@startlinerracing.com. The Race Organizers reserve the exclusive right to amend, change or delete existing rules, and to add new rules, at any time before, during or after the event. Protests and disputes can be brought to the Race Organizers, who will rule on the protest or dispute in a timely manner.
