Series Prize Drawing

- Top 100-point earners will be entered into the Arizona Sunrise Series Prize Drawing.
 - Top 100-point earners will be based on points earned through the next to last event in the series.
- Additional entries to the drawing will be given for participating in four of the seven series events.
 - For purposes of determining who completed four of the series events, if you are registered for the final race in the series you will be considered to have participated in the event.
- Grand Prize: $500 VISA Gift Card awarded to 3 people (we suggest you use it to escape the Arizona heat!)
 - If a Grand Prize is declined by winner, additional drawing will decide the prize.
- Additional prizes will be provided by our sponsors and partners.
 - Additional entries will be given for participating in four of the seven series events.

Miscellaneous

- Any participant found cheating at any point during the series will be disqualified from the entire series and will not be allowed to complete the remaining events. The following would be deemed as cheating: not following the course directions, cutting the course, illegal bib transfer (letting someone else run with your bib), submitting false virtual results, etc.
